He passed his Mysore Lower Secondary Examination in Hindustani in 1905 and thence at the latter part of 1906 went to Hyderabad and was studying privately for one year under a famous persian and Arabic Poet named Ashroff Sahib Shamsi. In 1908 he joined the Hydrabad Government Oriental College "Darul Ulum", and graduated in 1911 in Persian and the degree is called Munshi Fazil. He took another degree in Arabic in 1913 called Moulvi Fazil. In both these examinations, he is said to have passed with credit. He is the son-in-law of the late Syed Jaffer alias Sydan Myan of Daira Mohamadan community. He belongs to a respectable Mashayik (Priestly) community and he is a Mashayik himself. The confidential enquiry made goes to show that he is a very well behaved young man. The aforesaid Ashroff Sahib Shamsi visited him during the last Ramzan in commemoration of which he and other leading members of his community want to start the newspaper under reference.
